

Spire and Chapel, St. Bride's Church

Client

St. Bride's Church

Description

St Bride's was built 1670 – 1667, following the Great Fire of London. The Spire was built in 1702. The Church is a Grade I Listed Building was designed by Sir Christopher Wren.

Innovations & Added Value

John Smith is currently the Inspecting Architect and has carried out several projects, strengthening and re-glazing of the east window, repairs to the spire stonework, removal of asbestos insulation installed in 1957, quinquennial Inspection and several minor repairs and refurbishments.

Status

Completed