

Police Station, Hatfield

Client

Hertfordshire Police

Description

Having purchased the former offices of De Havilland in two art deco listed buildings, Hertfordshire Police set about renovating and extending them.

Innovations & Added Value

New additions included a main entrance, magistrates court and custody suite. Tangram provided support for design development to design review and in presenting proposals to the planning authority.

Status

Completed